UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)	Case No. 8:13CR105

	)	INDEPENDENT REVIEW OF INTERNET
-vs-	)	AND COMPUTER-RELATED EVIDENCE

TIMOTHY DEFOGGI,	)
	)
Defendant.	)

Pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(E), Defendant Timothy Defoggi respectfully moves the Court for an Order permitting independent review of internet and computer-related evidence in possession or control of the government.

In support of his motion, Defendant states the following:

1. Each of the seven counts in the Indictment allege crimes that occurred during the Defendant's alleged use of "Website A".
2. Website A allegedly contained images depicting child pornography and operated on "The Onion Router" ("TOR") which serves as a virtual network that offers anonymity to users.
3. The way a TOR website, and specifically Website A, operates is complicated and unlike how "normal" websites operate.

4. The investigation resulting in the Indictment involved highly-technical methods including, but not limited to, interception of electronic communications, surreptitious installation of keyloggers, cracking encrypted passwords, identification of IP addresses, and other technological investigative techniques.

5. Accordingly, it is the belief of the Defendant's undersigned counsel that an independent review of the investigation into Website A, as well as the evidence seized from the Defendant's house, are necessary to afford the Defendant his rights to due process and effective assistance of counsel, as guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution.

6. Independent review would be done by Daniel R. Meinke, Computer Forensic Resources, 300 S. Phillips Ave., Suite #L102, Sioux Falls, SD 57104. Expected cost of review is greater than $800.

For these reasons, Defendant requests an Order authorizing payment under the Criminal Justice Act.

Respectfully submitted,
Timothy Defoggi, Defendant
